

Former Harvard Interviewer:

"What Extracurricular Activities are Impressive to College Admissions Officers?"

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12
7:00-8:30

NCHS LITTLE THEATRE DOOR #3
440 WEST AURORA AVENUE
NAPERVILLE

What are college admissions officers looking for when they read a student's resume?
Do colleges want well-rounded students or "specialists"?
How do you know if your child is doing too many or too few extracurricular activities?
How can your child develop and demonstrate leadership?
What can your child do when a club's leadership positions are already filled?
Is volunteering at a food pantry good enough for community service?

Sonia Lal, M.Ed of ivyleaguepotential.com, is a former Harvard interviewer with several years of experience as an independent college counselor. She will be providing a step-by-step roadmap to help your children live up to their fullest potential.
