

Washington Junior High

An Individual Focus. A Team Approach.

The WJHS community works together to help students experience success.

Washington students . . .

- Attend school every day.
- Arrive on time to class and prepared with all materials.
- Participate in class by being focused, asking questions, staying organized, & using time wisely.
- Self-advocate by actively monitoring one's own progress and understanding.
- Respect self and others by following school rules and making good choices.
- Contribute to the school community by getting involved in clubs and/or active ties.

Washington teachers . . .

- Provide a safe learning environment, where every student is treated with dignity and respect.
- Demonstrate professional behavior and a positive attitude.
- Help students attain knowledge and skills by teaching the prescribed curriculum.
- Seek to motivate each student in the pursuit of academic excellence.
- Provide help to students.
- Communicate with students and parents/guardians about expectations, student progress, classroom behavior, grades, homework and other concerns in a timely manner.

Washington parents . . .

- Set high expectations for their child.
- Are actively engaged with learning at home.
- Remain informed of child's performance.
- Provide a time and place for homework and studying.
- Create a partnership with the school, the teachers, and the team.
- Are involved with school by attending school events, volunteering, and/or chaperoning.
- Encourage their child to be actively involved.
