Thursday, December 21st- CALLBACKS

You will receive an email if you get a callback.

3. Before you audition, you will be sent a link to a Google form. On that form, you will list two other parts that you are interested in as well as any rehearsal conflicts you may have and other theatrical experiences.

- A. Because of the amount of work in a musical, you are allowed to miss the equivalent of one rehearsal a week. This could be all of one day or pieces of days.
- B. Make sure you look at your calendar before you make the commitment to the musical.
- C. A rehearsal calendar will be given to you before auditions. Please note that you may not have to attend every rehearsal, every week; rehearsals will be for specific characters or groups. Two weeks before the show, EVERYONE MUST ATTEND ALL REHEARSALS!

4. Everyone gets into the musical!! We do not make cuts! If you do not get a part, you will be part of the ensemble and the ensemble is in almost every song and almost every scene. You will be busy!

5. You do not have to audition to be in the musical. If you want to be in the ensemble, use the link below to sign up.
