Understanding Implicit Bias

“People fail to get along because they fear each other; they fear each other because they don’t know each other; they don’t know each other because they have not communicated with each other.”

-Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Racism

- Is the belief that one set of characteristics is superior to another

- Is a system of oppression

Implicit Bias

- Expressed indirectly
- Everyone carries biases

Implicit Bias is the process of associating stereotypes or attitudes towards categories of people without conscious awareness.

This is a result of the socialization process. Our brain creates associations based on our socialization.

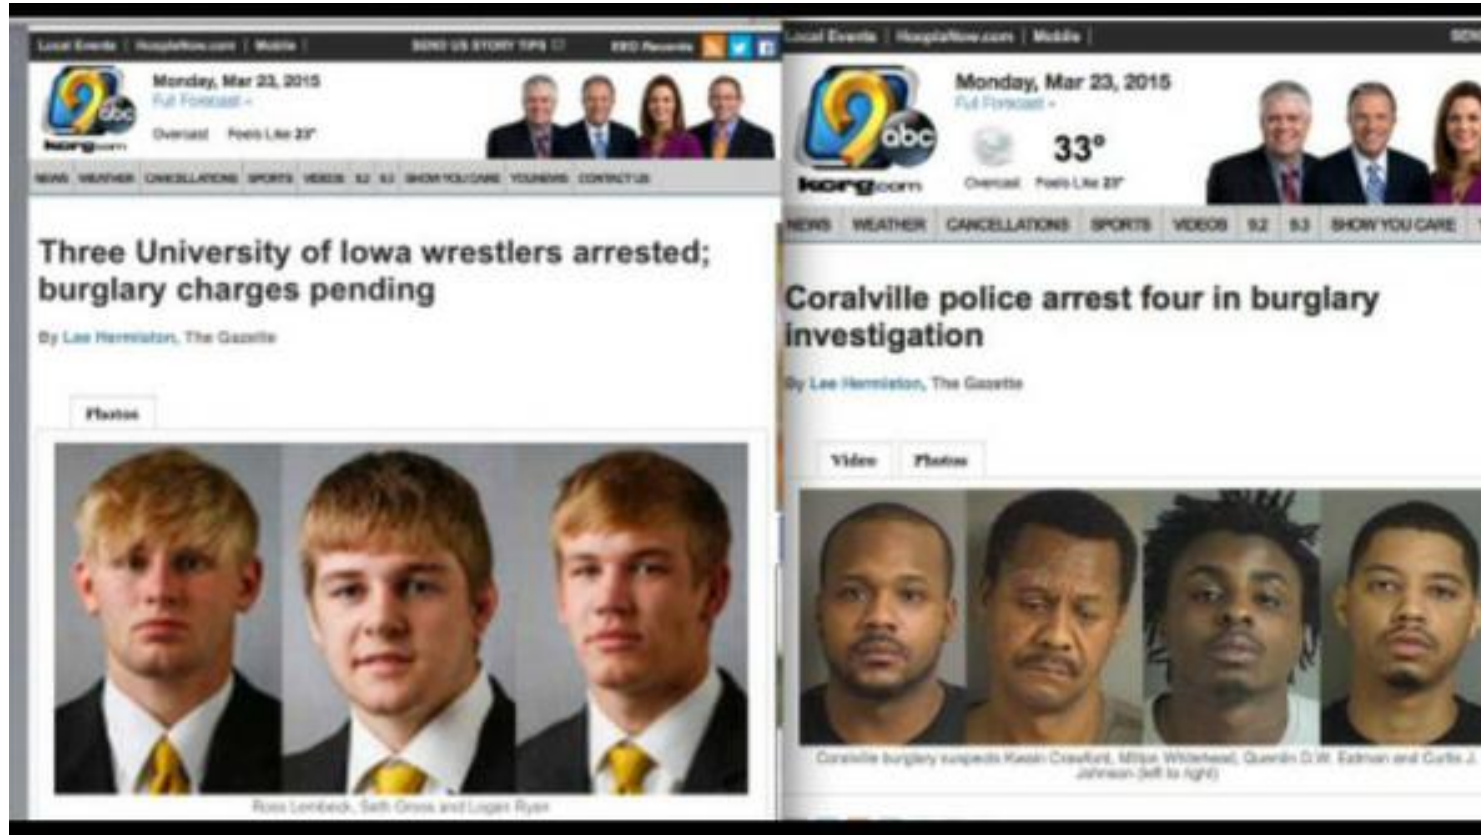

What is Implicit Bias?

“We don't deliberately choose our unconscious attitudes. And . . . we may not even be aware of them. The giant computer that is our unconscious silently crunches all the data it can from the experiences we've had, the people we've met, the lessons we've learned, the books we've read, the movies we've seen, and so on, and it forms an opinion.”

— Malcolm Gladwell, Blink: The Power of Thinking Without Thinking
