GENCYBER STUDENT CAMPS

Inspiring the Next Generation of Cyberstars!

The College of DuPage Computer and Information Technology (CIT) department is proud to present cybersecurity camps for middle and high school students this summer through a grant awarded by the National Science Foundation (NSF) and the National Security Agency (NSA).

These exciting, new hands-on camps explore important and timely topics, including:

- » Privacy and security
- » Safe browsing
- » Cyber ethics
- » Data security
