

May 5

- Mark your calendars—our Spring Choir Concert is coming up next week on Monday, May 12th, at 7:30 PM in the WJHS Cafeteria! Our 6th, 7th, and 8th grade choir students have been putting in so much hard work...rehearsing challenging music, refining their harmonies, and preparing a night full of fun, emotion, and amazing sound. You'll even get to hear solos and instrumental debuts from some standout performers: Corinna C., Olivia N., Abby G., Abby L., Anabelle W., Lilly M., Paige C., Rilyn B., Sophia K., Isabella S., Brooke R., Mickey P., Ryan R., Clare P., Charlotte C., and Sophie P.

This concert is free, open to everyone, and a perfect way to support the talent here at WJHS. We hope to see you there, next Monday, May 12th at 7:30!

- A reminder that the WJHS LC is still selling autographed books from author Jonathan Auxier (AUX-EE-AA), who visited Washington last week. If you would like to buy a copy, stop by the LC Circulation Desk to make your purchase.
- Attention Wildcats, especially those with hidden talents! Auditions for our annual Student Talent show are coming quickly. Join us after school on Wednesday to showcase your talent. Maybe you sing, juggle, dance... or amaze your friends and family with magic tricks...whatever the talent, we want you to be in our show on the second to last day of the school year. Click on the talent show box on the WJHS webpage, or visit Ms. Bergantino in room 237 for more information about the Student Talent Show!
- May is Asian American & Pacific Islander Month, and Diversity Club's trivia competition continues! Here is your next trivia question: "'Diwali' — also known as the festival of lights' is celebrated by millions of people within which cultures/religions?"

If you know the answer, stop by Mr. Panega's office and share the answer. If you are correct, you will be entered into a raffle for some amazing prizes!
