

- Tomorrow, Wednesday, we will be celebrating Unity Day! Unity Day is the signature event of National Bullying Prevention Month. It's a day for our whole school to come together and send a visible, powerful message that we are united for kindness, acceptance, and inclusion, and we stand strong against bullying. The official call-to-action is simple: Wear and share the color ORANGE!
Why orange? Orange is a color that represents safety and visibility. By wearing orange on Wednesday, you are showing every person in our school that they are safe, supported, and never alone. Start planning your outfit now! This isn't a fashion show, so it can be anything you have:
 - An orange t-shirt or sweatshirt
 - Orange shoelaces, socks, or a hat
 - Even just an orange bracelet or ribbonLet's make Wednesday, October 22nd, a bright, positive day that shows what a strong community we are!
- Good morning, Washington! Diversity Club would like to wish a very Happy Diwali to all our students, staff, and families who are celebrating. Diwali—which officially began yesterday—is the five-day Festival of Lights which celebrates the victory of light over darkness and good over evil. It is celebrated by Hindus and people of other faiths, including Jainism and Sikhism. Here at WJHS, we wish a bright and joyful celebration to everyone in our community and in the world who observes!
- Get ready to hit the mats because the wrestling season is just around the corner! That's right... the WJHS Wrestling season officially begins tomorrow after school! If you're looking for a chance to challenge yourself, build strength, grow your confidence, and be part of a championship winning team, then wrestling might be the perfect sport for you! To sign up for wrestling, just complete SNAP registration and turn in your sports physical! That's all you need to join! See Mr. Panega or Mr. Nutt with any questions!
- Wildcats! It's time to hit the court. Tryouts for the 7th and 8th-grade boys' basketball teams begin tomorrow after school. You must have a current sports physical and complete your SNAP registration by Wednesday to try out. See Mr. Johnson or Mr. Burke with any questions.
