

November 3

- Today, we will be celebrating Diya day loos moo-where-toes also known as “the day of the dead.” The Day of the Dead is where we celebrate our loved ones who are no longer with us. The day of the dead normally is celebrated over 2 days, with the first day honoring children and second honoring adults. This holiday is a cheerful holiday so we can celebrate and honor the people we love! A shout out to all of those who wore neon or bright colors today, helping us celebrate people who are no longer with us.
 - The next meeting of the year of the Wildcat Pride Club will be Wednesday morning at 7:30 A.M. in room 223. Our club provides a safe space for Gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and questioning students, as well as their friends and allies. New members are always welcome. This club is open to 6th, 7th and 8th graders. That’s Wildcat Pride Club, Wednesday morning at 7:30 in room 223.
 - Diversity and Culture is what makes us unique and what makes us similar! Let’s celebrate that! Our next diversity club meeting will take place tomorrow on Tuesday, November 4th at 7:30am in room 221. We want to celebrate you and your culture! See Mr. Panega or Mrs. Panega for more information!
- Attention Wildcats! We will be having our 2nd First Friday this coming Friday, November 7th! This will be held before school starting at 7:30 am! We will have candy, fidgets, school supplies, and Donuts!! SO bring a couple dollars this Friday for First Fridays!
 - Girls basketball intramurals started this morning for 6th graders...and it’s not too late to join us. Grade level dates and times and a google sign-up form are available on the WJHS website. Please see Mrs. Denius with any questions.
 - A reminder from Service Matters...all this week we are collecting Halloween candy in the bins at each end of the Learning Commons. So, how much candy do you really need? Consider helping out our service men and women, as well as first responders, enjoy some sweet treats. Thanks!
