

NNHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tuesday, May 20, 2025

Learning Commons

The final day to use the Testing Center is Wednesday, May 21. The Testing Center will close at the end of 8th period on Wednesday. It will not be open after school.

Tech

ALL STUDENTS - There are no more loaner Chromebooks, loaners ended Friday May 16th. You need to bring your fully charged Chromebook to school for the remainder of the school year.

AP Chemistry

If you are taking AP Chemistry next year, pick up your summer homework from Mrs. Brucker in room 148.

Ski and Snowboard Club

Hey skiers and snowboarders! The NNHS Ski and Snowboard club is going back to Park City, Utah in 2026! If you are interested in shredding the slopes and meeting new people, this is the trip for you! It will be from March 4-8. To sign up for this trip, see Mr. Adams in the Comm Arts office or send him an email at smadams1@naperville203.org!

Boys Gymnastics

The Boys Gymnastics team placed 5th overall in the State Meet this weekend. The Huskies were led by sophomore Stas Kalabayda (Kal-a-bay-da) who placed 2nd in the All-Around with a score of 56.25. He also placed 3rd on the Floor Exercise, Pommel Horse, and Vault. He placed 4th on Parallel Bars and High Bar and placed 5th on the Still Rings. Awesome performance Stas!! Albert Rustandi, Alex Realmuto, Jaden Millner, and Finn Coyle turned in other strong performances.

Girls Lacrosse

Congratulations to the Varsity Girls Lacrosse Team! The team took 1st place in the DuPage Valley Conference—an incredible accomplishment! Way to go, girls!

Harvard Essay Winner

Congratulations to junior Allen Xu on the recent publication of his essays The Effect of Democratic Backsliding on Carbon Emissions Intensity and Minutes to Midnight. Allen submitted his Minutes to Midnight essay to the Harvard International Economics Essay Competition, which had over 450 submissions, and Allen was named one of three winners. Print copies of Allen's essays can be found on the Naperville North Published Authors display in the Upper Learning Commons. Excellent work, Allen!

