* Remember to use the tax exempt form because we cannot reimburse for sales tax.

*Zelle has been added as a way to pay out reimbursements

Secretary's Report given by Carrie Schrock - September's meeting minutes will be presented for approval at the next H&S meeting.

Principal's Report given by Mr. Vogel.

*Moving night was a big success.

* WJHS is having a sight visit today because it has received a good rating as part of the Lighthouse District, so staff members are wearing special t-shirts and giving a special SEL lesson in class today.

*Motive8 - career day for 8th graders is coming up.

*Conferences will be all virtual this year. In person conferences can be scheduled with the individual teachers if that is desired.

Committee Reports

- *The SOAR meetings have been moved to Thursdays. They will be asking for parents to sign up to bring the breakfast .
- *Jepharya Badie gave an update on the Fall Fundraiser. It has been a very successful event so far. Thank you to those who have volunteered so far. The cut-off for sales is 10/7.
- *Jepharya is also leading SUCCESS, a group which identifies as black or african american. She is hosting a cookout
- *The all school read begins Oct 4th. The committee is looking for help to decorate for Oct 4th.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Jessica Jamrosz and seconded by Alyse Bergmann. The meeting was adjourned at 12:57pm.

Our next meeting will be held via Zoom on October 26th @ 7pm with BOE Rep, Tim Casey
