Grading Practices

- No extra credit will be issued.
- Academic behaviors can be included in the grade calculation when they are critical to student success in the course and those behaviors are taught and practiced in the classroom.
- In Infinite Campus, a score of “Missing” (M) will indicate an assessment has not been turned in and the comments section will include a specific date by which students can still submit. After that date, a zero (0) will be recorded.
- Work submitted after the original due date cannot be penalized more than a total of 10% and must be submitted no later than one week (5 school days) after the original due date.
- If a legitimate attempt is made on an assessment and the practice work has been completed, a score of 50% will be the lowest possible grade.
- Violations of the academic integrity policy will be consequence by the administration in collaboration with the department chair/teacher.
- All assessments must be shared in Google format with editing permissions AND submitted to Canvas (unless otherwise directed) or they will not be accepted.

Parents and Guardians Partnership

Naperville North believes in a collective partnership with parents/guardians which provides students the best opportunities for success. Some ways parents/guardians can support their student's learning are the following:

- Actively check Infinite Campus for grade updates.
 - Infinite Campus is a tool to progress monitor student work until final course grades are posted.
 - Monthly progress grades are posted and represent the current grade of a student in the course at that moment in time.
- Discuss missing assignments, reiterate due dates, help organize folders, materials, assignment notebooks, and review upcoming projects and assessments.
