

Naperville North High School

Course: English 3

Mission	To educate students to be self-directed learners, collaborative workers, complex thinkers, quality producers, and community contributors.
Course Description	This full-year course is designed to introduce 11th-grade students to composition and literature with emphasis on understanding a variety of texts, including fiction and non-fiction. Students will be assessed according to mastery of the Common Core State Standards in Reading, Writing, Speaking, and Listening.
Student & Teacher Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Students should communicate with their teachers regarding questions and concerns.● The most efficient way to communicate with teachers outside of class is through email; however, if you haven't received a response within 48 hours, please resend the email.● Teachers make every effort to respond to emails and phone calls within 24 hours during the workweek.
Course Priority Standards	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● W.11-12.1 Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.● W.11-12.2b Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.● RI.11-12.1 Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.● RI.11-12.7 - Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.● SL.11-12.1.A Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.
Grading Definitions	Practice is used to monitor students' learning to provide ongoing feedback that can be used by students to improve their learning. Examples may include the following: practice activities, homework, reading checks, discussion boards, etc. Evidence of Learning is used to evaluate student learning at the end of an instructional unit or segment of learning by comparing it against a standard or benchmark.

Grading Practices

- No extra credit will be issued.
- In Infinite Campus, a score of “Missing” (M) will indicate an assessment has not been turned in and the comments section will include a specific date by which students can still submit. After that date, a zero (0) will be recorded.
- Academic behaviors can be included in the grade calculation when they are critical to student success in the course and those behaviors are taught and practiced in the classroom.
- Work submitted after the original due date cannot be penalized more than a total of 10% a day and must be submitted no later than one week (5 school days) after the original due date.
- If a legitimate attempt is made on an assessment, a score of 50% will be the lowest possible grade.
- If a legitimate attempt is made on an assessment and the practice work has been completed, a score of 50% will be the lowest possible grade.
- Violations of the academic integrity policy will be consequence by the administration in collaboration with the department chair/teacher.
- All assessments must be shared in Google format with editing permissions AND submitted to Canvas (unless otherwise directed) or they will not be accepted.

Grading Standards & Weight

Reassessment Policies

Criteria for Reassessment:

1. Original assessment needs to be turned in on time.
2. All original practice work must be completed on time in order to be eligible for reassessment.
3. Only students scoring (below 80%) can reassess.
4. Students should determine within two days of receiving their score if they would like to engage in opportunities for reassessment.
5. Students must meet with the teacher outside of class to determine the reassessment plan.
6. A new due date will be agreed upon by teachers and students
7. Students must meet with the teacher, a Lit Center tutor, or afterschool tutoring to revise the assessment before the revised due date.
8. The higher of the two scores (no higher than 80%) will be entered in Infinite Campus.
9. There will be no reassessment opportunities for certain performance-based assessments as they evaluate skills in progress and are intended to provide students with feedback on their growth.

10. Assessments that include multiple opportunities for feedback and improvement in the assessment process will represent multiple attempts and be considered as reassessments

Support and Resources

Students can always make appointments with teachers, visit the Literacy Center to work with peer tutors, or attend After School Tutoring.

Parents and Guardians Partnership

Naperville North believes in a collective partnership with parents/guardians which provides students the best opportunities for success. Some ways parents/guardians can support their student's learning are the following:

- Actively check Infinite Campus for grade updates.
 - Infinite Campus is a tool to progress monitor student work until final course grades are posted.
 - Monthly progress grades are posted and represent the current grade of a student in the course at that moment in time.
- Discuss missing assignments, reiterate due dates, help organize folders, materials, assignment notebooks, and review upcoming projects and assessments.

Plagiarism

What is it?

The taking of another person's ideas and passing them off as your own

When am I guilty of plagiarism?

Whenever using someone else's ideas (while speaking, writing, direct quoting, or paraphrasing) and not crediting that person for their ideas/words, whether it was done INTENTIONALLY OR THROUGH CARELESSNESS.

Self-plagiarism: Submitting identical or substantial portions of similar work for credit more than once, without prior explicit consent from the instructor

What happens when I am caught plagiarizing?

LEVEL ONE: Plagiarizing practice work (daily homework, etc.)

CONSEQUENCES: Referral, parent contact, detention, letter placed in discipline file

LEVEL TWO: Plagiarizing summative work (essays, exams, etc.)—a level two violation consequence will be issued if you have multiple level one violations

CONSEQUENCES: Referral, parent contact, detention, letter placed in discipline file, academic consequence, notification to honor societies, class level change, etc.

LEVEL THREE: Theft, sale, or distribution of materials that can be used to gain an unfair advantage or falsify a grade—a level three violation consequence will be issued if you have multiple level two violations.

CONSEQUENCES: All level two consequences apply in addition to suspension or expulsion from school. The consequence will be determined during a meeting with the dean, teacher, parent, and student.

Cell Phone Policy

Phones are NOT allowed and should be put away (not on desk or in pocket) during class

Earbuds NOT allowed unless specific permission given by the teacher

Bathroom = leave phone on desk or teacher desk
