

January 19

- Our Wildcat Mascot, George, has stolen the Olympic Torch, and we'll need your help to get it back in time for the upcoming Paris Olympics. If you're skilled at solving puzzles and brain teasers, join us for our Escape Room evening event, on Thursday, January 25 from 6 until 8 p.m. Students will work in teams of 5 people, and signup info can be found on the WJHS Webpage, or in the Wildcat Weekly e-mail. The deadline for signing up for this Escape Room event TODAY! See Mrs. Trannon if you have any questions.
- Attention students! Science Club will begin with our first meeting on Tuesday next week. Thought you missed out? There is still time to join! Grab a permission slip from the office or from Ms. Brooks and return before our first meeting on Tuesday.
- The next season of Intramural Laser Tag and Bowling will begin January 31st at Bowlero from 4-5:30 p.m. Jefferson Patriots and Kennedy Eagles will join us in the fun. Are you excited? The cost is $11 a week, which includes bowling, shoe rental and a round of laser tag! Just grab a permission form that can be found on the WJHS website, the main office, or at the LC Circulation Desk. See Mr. Gorey with questions.
- We are just 14 days away from the deadline for the 2024 Caudill Voting Breakfast. You need to read and log at least 3 of the 2024 Caudill Award nominees by February 2nd, to receive an invite to the donut breakfast on Valentines Day. Not sure how many books you've logged so far? Check your school e-mail for the survey receipts that you received when you filled out the form, or see the friendly folks at the LC Circulation Desk.
- A reminder that we following a Spirit Assembly schedule today, so take note that period 8 will meet right after period 4. So that's 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 8TH...
